11. VILLAGE TRUSTEES REPORTS

11-A. HERB PORTER

Mayor Pro Tem Porter spoke to the Juneteenth Celebration and provided clarification regarding the event. He clarified that the event is not a fundraising event that, in fact, several of the Sister Cities Committee members have personally donated funds towards the event and that a budgeted conference was foregone by committee members in order to also apply those funds towards the Juneteenth event. He spoke to the mission and purpose of the Sister Cities Committee and noted that the two sister cities, Cape Coast Ghana, West Africa and Valparaiso, Zacatecas, Mexico are not benefiting in any way from this event. He provided the history of how the cultural programs and relationships with sister cities originated and spoke to the long-standing relationships we've had with our sister cities. He continued by speaking to how the Sister Cities Committee has helped our sister cities in the past and how both our sister cities have contributed towards the Juneteenth event and making this event possible. He closed by speaking to gun violence and his concerns.

11-B. JAMES KEMPER

Absent.

11-C. YASMEEN BANKOLE

Trustee Bankole thanked the DuPage Habitat for Humanity organization and the CIDC Committee for sponsoring the MLK Day event. She noted that the DuPage Habitat for Humanity organization is currently searching for a better mode of communication as it relates to Court J and the corresponding HOA agreements. She urges the residents in Court J to contact the DuPage Habitat for Humanity organization regarding this matter.

Trustee Bankole spoke to the recent Environmental Committee meeting and noted that the Apiary event will be taking place this Saturday, June 4, 2022, at 1:00 p.m. She noted that she was not in attendance at the Memorial Day event but thanked those responsible for coordinating the event. She spoke of concerns about gun violence in our country, the introduction of the sales of assault weapons in our community via a new business and requested that Village staff explore an ordinance in which the sales of assault weapons are banned within the Village. She closed by directing Village Manager Maller and Village Attorney Paul to draft the ordinance for Board approval prior to the opening of the gun range.

11-D. BOB PRIGGE

No report.

11-E. SYED HUSSAINI

Trustee Hussaini spoke to the MLK event and noted that it was a very successful event and he thanked those involved in the coordination of the event. He also spoke to the Public Hearing scheduled for June 9, 2022, by the Development Commission, in connection with the Village Center and the zoning proposals. He noted that communication had been sent to all residents and business owners affected by the new zoning and he invited the Board to attend the upcoming public hearing.

Trustee Hussaini thanked Trustee Porter for clarifying the controversy surrounding the Juneteenth event and noted that there is an overwhelming support by the community wanting local funds to go towards local community aid.

11-F. LIZA GUTIERREZ

Trustee Gutierrez spoke to the upcoming shared event by the Poplar Creek Township Public Library and the Schaumburg Township Public Library, she noted that representatives will be at Partners for Our Communities (POC) at Ascension, at 1515 Lake Street on Tuesday, June 7, 2022, from 9:30 a.m., and 12:30 p.m. She also noted that on Wednesday, June 8, 2022, the Tanglewood Blue Ribbon Cutting at 2800 Glendale Terrace, Number 17, from 11:30 a.m., to 12:30 p.m. She spoke to the Historic Committee and noted that pictures and documents pertaining to other communities will be gifted to them for their archives. She spoke to gun law restrictions and legislation and urged the Board to support the effort. She spoke to an upcoming 708 Board Coalition event at Busse Woods, Shelter number 6, on June 29, 2022. She explained that the 708 Board Coalition is a mental health organization helping those in need in our communities. She closed by speaking to the upcoming Harper College Transportation Infrastructure Committee meeting and noted that they will be working with Pace and all four townships in applying for grants that may help provide for transportation projects at the local level.
