

PROCLAMATION

In the fine tradition of honoring Veterans in November, it is my privilege to acknowledge those Veterans of Village of Hanover Park, the Veterans of the Townships of Hanover, Schaumburg, Bloomingdale, and Wayne Townships who have served our Country.

WHEREAS, the recognition of our veterans goes beyond their past or current sacrifice on the battlefield, to our appreciation of all who have answered their call of duty inspiring our Nation with their courage, compassion and dedication to their Country; and

WHEREAS, hundreds of thousands have given their lives while serving in the Armed Forces during the past century; and

WHEREAS, the contributions and sacrifices of the men and women who have served in the Armed Forces have been vital in maintaining the freedoms and way of life enjoyed by the people of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Hanover Park hereby expresses our most sincere gratitude to all living veterans and to those who paid the ultimate price for our freedom, and resolve ourselves to upholding their legacy of justice, liberty, and opportunity for all; and

WHEREAS, we thank our Veteran and the Veterans' organizations like the Arnold-Heath VFW Post 5151 for their service in our community, especially as it relates to their programs offering support and guidance to veterans and their families.

Now, therefore, I, Rodney S. Craig, Village President of the Village of Hanover Park of Hanover Park, Illinois do hereby proclaim

Honoring Hanover Park Veterans Day

In the Village of Hanover Park, Illinois. I also urge all Americans to observe November 9 through November 15, 2014 as National Veterans Awareness Week.
