

PROCLAMATION

Mayor's Proclamation

A Celebration of 25 years!

Whereas, In 1988, Andrew Strzalkowski established Round Ground Metals, and

Whereas, RGM established a vision to become the premier manufacturer of precision tolerance round bars for critical applications, and

Whereas, the challenge for Andrew Strzalkowski and with the support of his wife Elwira took up the challenge and started working on making round bars rounder, and

Whereas, the RGM family is made up of dedicated workers with a solid work ethic, and the help of 107 Families who engage in our core principles of quality and integrity, and

Whereas, with innovative spirit RGM has evolved from being a tool processor into a precision cold finishing specialty steel mill, specializing in close tolerance round bar products,

Whereas, the people of Hanover Park are proud to have an exceptional manufacturer of steel products today as they support the Manufacturing Industry in the USA and abroad, now

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, I, Rodney S. Craig, Mayor in the Village of Hanover Park, Illinois, in celebration of RGM Celebrating its 25th Anniversary do hereby recognize and salute Andrew Strzalkowski, President of Round Ground Metals, Inc for his dedication to his employees, and his dedication to the Village of Hanover Park, and do hereby Proclaim this

Saturday, September 7, 2013
as Round Ground Metals Day in the Village of Hanover Park, Illinois. I urge all residents to recognize and honor the Ownership, Management, and employees of RGM for their 25 years of dedication and service to the Village of Hanover Park.

Dated this 7th day of September 2013.

Attest:

Village Clerk

Village President