

proclamation

WHEREAS, public education is the backbone of our democracy, providing young people with the tools they need to maintain our nation's precious values of freedom, civility and equality; and

WHEREAS, equipping young Americans with both practical skills and broader intellectual abilities will give them hope for, and access to, a productive future; and

WHEREAS, public schools encourage community, bringing together adults and children educators and volunteers, business leaders and elected officials in a common enterprise; and

WHEREAS, public education employees work tirelessly to serve our children and communities with dedication, care and professionalism; and

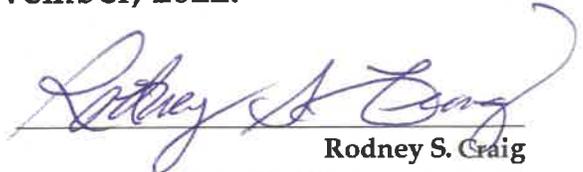

WHEREAS, this is the 101st year that multiple national organizations are observing American Education Week to bring attention to and honor the accomplishments of public schools; and

WHEREAS, this is the 23rd year that more than 100 countries around the world are observing International Education Week to promote international understanding and preparation to live in a global society.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rodney S. Craig, Mayor of the Village of Hanover Park, Illinois, do hereby proclaim November 13 through November 19, 2022 as American Education Week in the Village of Hanover Park and urge the residents of Hanover Park to give gratitude for all those who have made education their calling and who help learners of all ages and backgrounds reach their full potential.

dated this 17th day of November, 2022.
